The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability, and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The government withdrew the reform bill to the next session.

The British Admiralty stationed a ship of war at Messina, one at Palermo, and four in the Bay of Naples, to afford shelter to British subjects.

Palmerston stated he would not hesitate to express to the Neapolitan envoy the feelings with which they regarded the barbarities perpetrated at Palermo.

Austria had peremptorily refused to interfere in regard to the proposition of the King of Naples for the guarantee of possession of the two Sicilies. There is every reason to believe that France will do likewise. It is unnecessary to say what were the feelings of the British government.

FRANCE.—The Emperor leaves Paris on the 15th for Baden, to meet the Princes Regent of Prussia and other German sovereigns.

On the 14th the Emperor was to hold a grand military review to celebrate the annexation of Savoy and Nice, which would be formally accomplished that day. Te Deum will be sung in Norte Dame, and public edifices will be illuminated.

The Courier De Paris received a fresh warning for an article upon the liberty of conscience.

The Austrian government has resolved to increase the effective strength of their second army in Italy, and a corps of cavalry is also to be collected in Italian Tyrol.

The stadtholdership of Hungary comes into effect July 1st.

Melbourne mails of April 24th are received in England. News unimportant.

It is understood that Garibaldi would not undertake anything in Sicily for some days to come. He is organizing his reserve.

The Post says there is no truth in the rumor that France is about to send a corps of observation to the Swiss frontier.

The Times says government will prepare to commence fortifications and other works soon.

A SHARP TRANSACTION.—The Wheeling Intelligencer relates that a druggist of that city, who held a note against a physician residing across the line in Pennsylvania, determined to collect it by hook or crook.—Accordingly, he got the necessary papers and proceeded toward Little Brooke, expecting to find the doctor there, where he has considerable practice. The doctor, however, was at home in Pennsylvania, where he could not be arrested. The apothecary, rather than come back empty-handed, decided to resort to a piece of stratagem. He sent a friend over to the doctor's house in great haste to inform him that a man had been thrown from his horse on the road leading to Wellsburg, and dangerously wounded. The doctor mounted his horse immediately and rode to the scene of the accident. When he was dismounting at the door of the house supposed to contain the wounded man, he was approached and arrested by the sheriff of Brooke county, who was lying in wait by previous arrangement. The doctor was conducted before a justice, and after making a good deal of fuss about the trick that had been played upon him, told the debtor and sheriff that he lamed his horse, and that he would like to send the animal home and have another brought to him. No objection was made to this, and the lame horse was sent home and another returned. The doctor then offered to leave the horse as security for the debt, and was discharged. The next morning a neighbor of the doctor's applied to the sheriff, demanding the horse in his charge, stating that the doctor had borrowed him for the afternoon, and did not and never had owned him. The sheriff was compelled to give the horse up, and as the security was not sufficient, he of course becomes responsible for the debt. The doctor tells them that tricking is a game two can play at.

Somebody writes a communication to the Janesville Gazette, quoting a paragraph that originated with the New York Herald, if we mistake not, wherein it is alleged that Chief Justice Dixon of this state favors the election of Mr. Douglas to the presidency. The writer thinks that if such is the case those republicans who voted for Judge Dixon should know it, and desires information on the point.

Judge Dixon's position is such that he cannot be expected to take an active part in the political questions of the day. The judge, whose office it is to decide impartially between man and man, is withheld by obvious reasons of propriety from participating in the maneuvering and drill of a presidential canvass. But judges have the same right to entertain decided views on the political questions of the day, and the same interest in a wise and honest administration of the government as other men. When their opinions are misrepresented by politicians in order to prop up a failing cause, we can see no reason why such misrepresentations should not be corrected. We therefore take the occasion to say that we have good reason to belive—we might make the statement much stronger without deviating from the truth—that Judge Dixon does not favor the election of Douglas; that, on the contrary, he fully approves of the principles set forth in the Chicago platform, and that his choice for the next president of the United States is Abraham Lincoln of Illinois, a gentleman who is not understood to be particularly acceptable to the friends of Mr. Douglas.—Madison Journal.

The continuance of wet weather in Europe has given rise to apprehensions as to the crops. Hence the late rise in breadstuffs. Late advices from Germany also state that the wheat has been almost totally destroyed in some portions of that country by heavy and frequent hail storms.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND
—:oXo:—
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid
which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,
A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,
He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated
Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,
on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of
ATHENS MARBLE
(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances, four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The government withdrew the reform bill to the next session.

The British Admiralty stationed a ship of war at Messina, one at Palermo, and four in the Bay of Naples, to afford shelter to British subjects.

Palmerston stated he would not hesitate to express to the Neapolitan envoy the feelings with which they regarded the barbarities perpetrated at Palermo.

Austria had peremptorily refused to interfere in regard to the proposition of the King of Naples for the guarantee of possession of the two Sicilies. There is every reason to believe that France will do likewise. It is unnecessary to say what were the feelings of the British government.

FRANCE.—The Emperor leaves Paris on the 15th for Baden, to meet the Princes Regent of Prussia and other German sovereigns.

On the 14th the Emperor was to hold a grand military review to celebrate the annexation of Savoy and Nice, which would be formally accomplished that day. Te Deum will be sung in Norte Dame, and public edifices will be illuminated.

Negotiations for the treaty of commerce between France and Belgium are progressing.

The Courier De Paris received a fresh warning for an article upon the liberty of conscience.

Breadstuffs in France are higher, owing to the unfavorable accounts from the growing wheat crops.

The Sardinian Senate has approved of the cession of Savoy and Nice—90 against 10.

The evacuation of Italy by French troops is completed.

Fresh bands of insurgents are menacing the Roman States. Lamoriciere had sent troops there.

The Austrian government has resolved to increase the effective strength of their second army in Italy, and a corps of cavalry is also to be collected in Italian Tyrol.

The stadtholdership of Hungary comes into effect July 1st.

Melbourne mails of April 24th are received in England. News unimportant.

Several engagements are reported between British troops and natives in New Zealand.

A French frigate threatened the town of Barry, Africa, with bombardment, if a debt of long standing to a French firm is not immediately paid. The debt was paid.

LONDON, June 14.

It is understood that Garibaldi would not undertake anything in Sicily for some days to come. He is organizing his reserve.

The Post says there is no truth in the rumor that France is about to send a corps of observation to the Swiss frontier.

The Times says government will prepare to commence fortifications and other works soon.

A SHARP TRANSACTION.—The Wheeling Intelligencer relates that a druggist of that city, who held a note against a physician residing across the line in Pennsylvania, determined to collect it by hook or crook.—Accordingly, he got the necessary papers and proceeded toward Little Brooke, expecting to find the doctor there, where he has considerable practice. The doctor, however, was at home in Pennsylvania, where he could not be arrested. The apothecary, rather than come back empty-handed, decided to resort to a piece of stratagem. He sent a friend over to the doctor's house in great haste to inform him that a man had been thrown from his horse on the road leading to Wellsburg, and dangerously wounded. The doctor mounted his horse immediately and rode to the scene of the accident. When he was dismounting at the door of the house supposed to contain the wounded man, he was approached and arrested by the sheriff of Brooke county, who was lying in wait by previous arrangement. The doctor was conducted before a justice, and after making a good deal of fuss about the trick that had been played upon him, told the debtor and sheriff that he lamed his horse, and that he would like to send the animal home and have another brought to him. No objection was made to this, and the lame horse was sent home and another returned. The doctor then offered to leave the horse as security for the debt, and was discharged. The next morning a neighbor of the doctor's applied to the sheriff, demanding the horse in his charge, stating that the doctor had borrowed him for the afternoon, and did not and never had owned him. The sheriff was compelled to give the horse up, and as the security was not sufficient, he of course becomes responsible for the debt. The doctor tells them that tricking is a game two can play at.

Somebody writes a communication to the Janesville Gazette, quoting a paragraph that originated with the New York Herald, if we mistake not, wherein it is alleged that Chief Justice Dixon of this state favors the election of Mr. Douglas to the presidency. The writer thinks that if such is the case those republicans who voted for Judge Dixon should know it, and desires information on the point.

Judge Dixon's position is such that he cannot be expected to take an active part in the political questions of the day. The judge, whose office it is to decide impartially between man and man, is withheld by obvious reasons of propriety from participating in the maneuvering and drill of a presidential canvass. But judges have the same right to entertain decided views on the political questions of the day, and the same interest in a wise and honest administration of the government as other men. When their opinions are misrepresented by politicians in order to prop up a failing cause, we can see no reason why such misrepresentations should not be corrected. We therefore take the occasion to say that we have good reason to belive—we might make the statement much stronger without deviating from the truth—that Judge Dixon does not favor the election of Douglas; that, on the contrary, he fully approves of the principles set forth in the Chicago platform, and that his choice for the next president of the United States is Abraham Lincoln of Illinois, a gentleman who is not understood to be particularly acceptable to the friends of Mr. Douglas.—Madison Journal.

The continuance of wet weather in Europe has given rise to apprehensions as to the crops. Hence the late rise in breadstuffs. Late advices from Germany also state that the wheat has been almost totally destroyed in some portions of that country by heavy and frequent hail storms.

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

The Prospect for Douglas.

Our Douglas fellow citizens do not like the nomination of Breckenridge. To use a late favorite phrase in fashion among them, "it is a wet blanket" upon the hopes of that branch of the party. "Breckenridge will decline," say they. "He and Douglas are good friends," etc. The telegraph, however, reports the response of Mr. Breckenridge to a party who were serenading him, and he talks like a man who has already accepted, and means to stand his ground. It is quite evident that the hopes cherished that everybody would get out of the way and let the "little giant" have a clear field to himself, are vain. There are five candidates before the public, if we are to count Gen. Houston as one. None of them weaken Mr. Lincoln, while they will all draw votes from Douglas, and each other. In the south the fight will be between Breckenridge and Bell, while Douglas will be nowhere. That Mr. Douglas has warm friends in the southern states cannot be doubted, but they are not numerous enough to give him an electoral vote. The declination of Fitzpatrick shows that the chances are considered quite uncertain. The north is not wholly to be relied upon. The defections in New England already begin to appear. It is true that the telegraph reports that the masses are for Douglas, but they are the masses of the cities, and it is well known of what material they are composed. The country democrats are made up of different material, and when it shall appear that the strength of the democratic party—the states which will win for that party—are all going for Breckenridge and Lane, there will be many "sober second thoughts." Mark our prediction that the enthusiasm for Douglas will grow smaller by degrees, from this time out. There are no hopes of triumph clinging about his nomination—certain defeat only stares his followers in the face, whichever way they turn. The democratic party is in the situation of the three men fighting upon the railroad, who were so excited that they heeded not the approach of the engine until it had passed over and crushed them. Their own quarrels have occupied the democracy so intensely that they did not take notice of the engine of an overwhelming public opinion bearing down upon them, until their family fight was over. Now they see the dangers of their situation, but "it is too late."

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The U. S. District Court, at its late session in Chicago, decided that executions issued in favor of non-residents, against a citizen of Illinois, could be levied on the homestead of the defendant, in spite of the state law to the contrary. The decision is that United States courts are not obliged to take cognizance in all cases of state laws, and that the law of the state in which the plaintiff resides is to be taken into consideration in rendering judgment.

Thus the supreme court is advancing step by step, usurping the powers of the states. Our courts will soon be mere appendages to it, and will after a while be unnecessary and useless in cases of any magnitude.

☞ Caleb Cushing, after leaving the Douglas convention, went directly to the seceders' convention and presided, as if nothing had happened. His opening speech was a cool specimen of eloquence. He was introduced to the convention in this style, by Mr. Russell of Va.:

> Gentlemen of the Convention:—Your president needs no introduction from me, for you have already acknowledged him as one who is now, as he has been heretofore, president of the national democratic convention. [Tremendous cheering.]

Mr. Cushing, on taking the chair, said:

> Gents:—We are re-assembled here as delegates to the national democratic convention, duly accredited from more than twenty states, for the purpose of enunciating the principles of the party, and for the purpose of continuing and re-establishing the principles of the party, of upholding the constitution and the Union, and the co-equal rights of the several states. [Loud cheering.]

The chair then announced that the convention would proceed to business.

☞ A terrible explosion occurred on the steamer Ben. W. Lewis near Cairo, on Sunday night, and upwards of fifty lives were lost. The boat took fire and burnt to the water's edge.

Gray, of the Cleveland Plaindealer, shortens the term "administrative officials" into "administration offals."

A SUGGESTION.—The coming fall a member of congress is to be elected from this district, and as a suggestion can do no harm, we propose to make one. We want, of course, one of our best men, one whose record will bear close scrutiny. We suggest the name of Mr. Alex. Graham of Janesville as such a man for the candidate. This is rather premature, perhaps, and we are not aware that Mr. Graham is a candidate, or that he would accept the nomination if tendered to him, but we can see in him a man fit for the post. Candidates should be sought by the people, and selected because of their fitness. The people may have claims upon a man, but he none upon them. Next week we will give our reasons more fully why we think Mr. Graham the fit man. What do the Janesville Gazette, Albany Times, Monroe Sentinel, and State Rights think of our suggestion?—Brodhead Reporter.

Mr. Graham is a thorough, working republican, and a man of talent. His nomination would be supported by us with cordiality and zeal, but we understand that he is not a candidate for the office named by the Reporter. If he would suffer his name to be used in this connection, he has hosts of friends in this and other counties who would be pleased to see him nominated; but we apprehend that the suggestion of the Reporter is not approved by Mr. G., and that it will be useless to urge him to accept a nomination. The Reporter will also allow us to suggest, that it is hardly the proper work of the newspapers of the district to control this nomination. Our advice would be to let the people decide this matter through their delegates, without any outside aid; but when the nomination is made, it is then the proper duty of the republican press to see that the nominee is elected. Acting upon this policy, we will here state that our own preference among the candidates is the nominee of the republican convention, whoever he may be. Until the convention is held we shall consider our duty performed by announcing the names of the candidates with such general commendation as we may think appropriate.

A GOOD LAW—POSTMASTERS TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. Colfax of Indiana, who is himself the publisher of a newspaper, introduced a bill at the present session, which has passed both houses of congress and become a law, requiring postmasters to deliver undirected newspapers sent in packages to clubs when the names of the members of such clubs are furnished him.

Let each postmaster, where club packages are taken, be furnished with a plainly written list of the subscribers, and he will be obliged to deliver the papers, however unpalatable the doctrines promulgated may be to him.

This law will be of great advantage to newspaper publishers, and their thanks are due to Mr. Colfax.—Madison Journal.

We do not agree with the Journal in its estimate either of the propriety or value of this law. Its effect will be solely to benefit the large eastern weeklies which flood the country to the detriment of the local press, and impose a large amount of labor on postmasters that ought not to be required of them. We see no good reason why those publishers at the east who are making thousands from their business where country papers are making hundreds or barely earning a subsistence, should not incur the expense and labor of directing their papers, as well as a shipper take the trouble to mark his packages. Mr. Colfax, we think, had in view the interest of half a dozen mammoth establishments on the seaboard quite as much as the numerous class of small publishers who are scattered throughout the Union; and if he receives the thanks of this latter class, they possess a spirit of meekness under injuries very few of them have credit for.

We presume we have as large a list of subscribers at local post offices as the average of newspaper publishers, and could save as much labor under this new law, if we chose to avail ourselves of its provisions, as the majority of publishers; but we are unwilling, as a matter of self-interest, to entrust postmasters with the delivery of our paper without the name of the subscriber written upon it.

Postmasters can have no other interest than the easiest and quickest manner of distribution, and we are too easily accessible to complaints of non-reception of papers to multiply the chances by sending a package to the care of a man or a boy who can easily say the package was short of a full number when he wants an excuse for his own carelessness or lack of disposition to do our work for us. Where it costs a postage stamp to make such a complaint, and the letter conveying it can be cast into the stove without again thinking of it, or meeting face to face an irritated subscriber, a publisher may be willing to take the chances of a regular and correct distribution under the new law, but we are altogether too near our readers to try the experiment.

THE FARM MORTGAGE QUESTION IN POLITICS.—A correspondent of the Milwaukee Sentinel, writing from Waukesha county, says that the majority given for Judge Dixon in that county occasioned some surprise as the republicans expected to carry the election for Sloan by 300 to 400 majority. But since the decision of the farm mortgage cases, it has become known there that the votes of those interested in defeating the mortgages, were cast for Dixon, under assurances received from certain sources that by electing Dixon they would secure one Judge on the bench who was favorable to them. Had the fraud been discovered in time, says the correspondent, it might have been corrected and thus have saved this reliable republican county the humiliation to which she was brought by having been deceived into casting her vote against the choice of the republican convention. Waukesha county was not the only locality where such assurances were made.

☞ The sincerity of the popular sovereignty democrats may be known from the fact that they nominated Fitzpatrick, a member of the senate who voted for the Lecompton bill and Jeff. Davis' resolutions.

☞ One of the delegates to the democratic national convention from Tennessee, after he had taken his seat in the seceders' convention, thanked God that he was at length on a floor where he could speak without being hissed at.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

Gov. Fitzpatrick has declined the Vice-Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket, and Gov. H. B. Johnson has been substituted by the national committee. Mr. Johnson accepts and endorses the platform.

The committee to inform the candidates of their nomination, waited on Gov. Herschell B. Johnson, to-night, at the National Hotel. He received them in the large dining room of the hotel, which was crowded with ladies and gentlemen. He accepted the nomination, endorsing the platform in every particular, and declaring that the south would sustain the principles laid down in it. In his opinion the doctrine of non-intervention was a necessity to the preservation of the Union. [Applause.] And he should quietly, firmly and he hoped bravely accept the responsibility imposed upon him. He cherished the hope that Providence will lead us out of our civil disasters, and in His good time conduct us to tranquility and peace. [Long continued cheers.

Senator Davis followed in an eloquent strain, in relation to the personal and public character of Breckenridge and Lane.—The democracy was not the party which seeks for spoils or rests itself upon the claims of men. When Mr. Van Buren proved untrue, they cast him off as a diseased member, and when at a more recent period, another democrat proved recreant, it remained for the party, faithful to its institutions, to separate him also from the body. He vindicated the convention that nominated Breckenridge and Lane; let spoilsmen go where inclinations leads them. The democracy honor Mr. Buchanan for all he has done, and cast the complaints of office-seekers to the winds. [Laughter.] He spoke of the constitution and states rights, justice and fraternity as the principles under which Breckenridge and Lane will be elected. [Applause.]

Messrs. Toombs and Hallett followed, the latter insisting as the framer of the Cincinnati platform, that there is nothing therein in the least countenancing squatter sovereignty. The Wilmot Proviso having been removed from congress, it was adopted with a view to keep slavery out of the territories, and to gain abolition votes under a spurious democracy.

Mr. Homan of Ky. made some humorous remarks.

The procession proceeded to Brown's Hotel, where an immense crowd had previously gathered. After the performance of an air, Gen. Lane appeared and tendered his thanks to the assemblage for their manifestations of kindness. He was proud of the nominee of the Baltimore convention. He was a man whom he had long known on the battle field and in the councils of the nation, and he felt deeply honored at being placed on the same ticket with him. He [Lane] accepted the nomination of the national democracy assembled at Baltimore, and with them believed in the equality and rights of the states under the constitution. None exceeded himself in loyalty and devotion to his country, and for the perpetuation of the Union he was ready to lay down his life.

Gen. Lane was loudly applauded throughout his speech.

Mr. Yancey followed, saying that the country was in a crisis, from which it was the duty of the democracy to relieve her.—He spoke at considerable length, and was frequently applauded.

The demonstration continued beyond midnight.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

Altogether contrary to previous indications, the post office deficiency bill has become a law. It was saved from defeat by the house unexpectedly receding from the amendments, until now, so decidedly persevered in, providing for the restoration, with a few exceptions, of all the inland service suspended on the 4th of March, 1859, apart from the appropriation for deficiencies. It requires the post master general to advertise for proposals and contracts with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, for the transportation of the mails by steamships from Charleston via Savannah, to Key West and back, twice a month or oftener, from the 1st of July next, to the 1st of June, 1864 inclusive, at such sums as he may think reasonable, not exceeding $50,000 per annum. The cabinet were at the capitol during the morning, transacting business in connection with public measures.—Among the last bills approved by the President is one reducing rates for public printing, 40 per cent on the present prices; to take effect from the date of its passage. The special committee to report next session, on the President's further protest, communicated to-day against the Covode committee, consists of Messrs. Stanton, Cary, Adams of Massachusetts, Sedgwick, and Pryor.

BALTIMORE, June 25.

It is positively asserted here to-night by politicians from Washington, that Mr. Fitzpatrick positively declines the nomination that has been tendered him.

CONCORD, N. H., June 25.

Ex-President Pierce pronounces the nomination of Douglas a sectional one.

The secession of the Boston Post creates quite a stir among the old political stagers here. Some democrats are in a quandary about the Baltimore nominations, but the rank and file are enthusiastic for Douglas. The Patriot, and all the party papers in the state, except the Berke democrats, will support Douglas.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

Gov. Fitzpatrick having declined the nomination for vice president, the national committee have substituted HERSCHEL B. JOHNSON, of Georgia.

A large crowd, accompanied by a band, proceeded to-night to the residence of Mr. Breckenridge, and having serenaded him, he, in response to repeated cries, appeared. He said he felt deeply this manifestation of friendly regard, and accepted it as an approval of the proceedings at Baltimore, by which the national democracy had placed his name and that of his gallant and honored friend, Gen. Lane, before the people for president and vice president of the United States.

ST. LOUIS, June 26.

The demonstration of Breckenridge and Lane faction, last evening, was interrupted at the Planters' House by a large number of Douglas men. Judge Bowlin attempted but was not permitted to speak, and finally disappeared. A collision was at one time very much feared.

Another Douglas jubilee comes off to-morrow night.

NEW YORK, June 26.

The five story building, No. 119 Fulton street and 42 Ann street, were almost entirely destroyed by fire this morning. It was occupied by Lewis & Co., clothiers, and Whitleborn & Co., printers. A policeman was badly injured and several firemen narrowly escaped being crushed by the falling of the walls. Loss $25,000.

No signs of the Great Eastern at 9 A. M.

The Market.

NEW YORK, June 26.

Flour without material change, sales 14,000 barrels, 5,35a5,40 super western; 5,55a5,70 common to medium extra western.—Wheat without striking change, sales 60,000 bushels, 1,29a1,30 Milwaukee club; 1,50 white Canada. Barley nominal. Corn quiet, firm with fair demand in part for export.

Sketches of the Baltimore Nominees.

John C. Breckenridge, who has been nominated by the seceders democratic national convention, for President of the United States, is a native and citizen of Kentucky—compartively young man, being scarcely forty years of age; was elected Vice President on the ticket with President Buchanan, in 1856—in anticipation of his term expiring next 4th of March, his party friends in Kentucky have elected him to the United States senate in place of Hon. J. J. Crittenden. He is represented as being a very dignified and manly southern gentleman.

Joseph Lane, of Oregon, who is the nominee for Vice President with Breckenridge, is also a United States senator. He is a native of North Carolina, was a merchant in Indiana, was a member of the legislature of that state several times, served in the Mexican war, and was appointed Brigadier-General by President Polk. In 1849 he was appointed governor of Oregon territory, and was elected delegate to congress in 1851, which office he held until the state was organized, when he was chosen one of its senators. His term expires March 4th, 1861.

Stephen A. Douglas, the nominee for President by his own wing of the Baltimore convention, is a United States senator from Illinois. He was born in Vermont, emigrated to Ohio in 1831 and thence to Illinois, is a lawyer, and successively held the offices of attorney general of the state, register of the land office, secretary of state, and judge of the supreme court, was a member of the house of representatives from 1843 to '47, was elected to the senate by the legislature in 1847, to succeed James Semple, and was re-elected at the expiration of his term in 1853, and again re-elected in 1858. He is in favor of the extension of national territory, and is the leading advocate of "popular sovereignty." He was the author of the Kansas-Nebraska bill.

Benjamin Fitzpatrick, who is the nominee on the Douglas ticket for Vice President, is also a member of the United States senate. He is a native of Georgia, emigrated to Alabama in 1815, and has ever since resided there, is a lawyer by profession, was solicitor of his judicial district from 1823 to '29, was a presidential elector in 1840, was governor of Alabama in 1842 and '43, and again in 1844 and '45. He was appointed to the senate by the governor in 1848, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dixon H. Lewis; retired at the close of his term in 1849; was elected in 1853, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William R. King, and at the close of his term in 1855 was re-elected for another term, which expires March 4th, 1861. He was chosen president pro tem. of the senate in 1857, and still holds that position.—Chicago Journal.

HORRIBLE.—The New York Herald of the 21st gives the following account of the death of three men by being run over by the express train on the Hudson River railroad, one of whom was forcibly held on the track till the cow-catcher knocked his brains out:

As the express train on yesterday, which leaves Chambers street at 11 A. M., on the Hudson Railroad, was within a quarter of a mile of the Peekskill depot, it ran over and killed three men, two of whom were fighting on the track. Three men, named Geo. Rawcliffe, Henry W. Hall, and Thomas Granger, were walking on the track near Peekskill, at one o'clock in the afternoon, when Hall and Granger got into a quarrel, clinched and fell upon the track. This occurred just as the train appeared in sight, but it was impossible for the engineer to observe them at that distance. As the train approached he gave the usual signal of danger, and continued to blow the whistle up to the time of the accident. The warning was, however, unnoticed by the two men fighting, but the other, Rawcliffe, went up to them as soon as he observed the train, and attempted to separate them, when Hall seized him by the arm and held him on the track. The engineer, now seeing that it was almost impossible to prevent running over them, reversed the engine and applied the patent brake, but too late, for before the train could be stopped, it had passed over them, killing two and fatally injuring the third. Rawcliffe, the one who attempted to separate the others, was struck upon the head by the cow-catcher, and thrown over on the other track. He struggled hard to free himself, but Hall held him so that the head of the unfortunate young man projected over on the track upon which the train was. He was instantly killed.—Thomas Granger was underneath Hall, and was mangled in a horrible manner. He was also instantly killed. The other, Henry W. Hall, was struck upon the head by the cow-catcher, and thrown to the side of the track. He lived nearly half an hour, but was speechless and insensible. On examination it was found that his skull and side were broken. The accident was seen by several persons.

The folly of girls in advertising for husbands, as in answering the advertisements for wives, was the fatal snare into which has fallen, among hundreds of others, the daughter of a prominent New York merchant, living on twenty-fourth street. She "advertised" in the Herald, in company with several other school girls, with whom she enjoyed good hearty laughs over the letters they got. After several days, she took out a letter, on opening which she read at the bottom, "I am following you now," and sure enough the writer was but a few steps behind. She thus fell directly into his power, and was persuaded to elope to Cincinnati, where his parents, wealthy people, resided, and where they would be married. Arrived in Cincinnati, they learned that his "parents" had taken sudden flight to Texas in consequence of the death of a "wealthy relative" there. Pushing on to New Orleans, the poor girl discovered the terrible imposition, and was left destitute.—She was crossing the levee for a fatal leap into the river, on a recent evening, when friendly hands interposed and saved her.

PLUCK.—Mrs. Jane Manahan, residing in East Cambridge, Mass., while awaiting her husband's return one evening, fell into a doze, from which she was aroused to find that a burglar was making free with such articles as he could conveniently dispose of. Without screaming or manifesting the least alarm, she sprang for him, but he took to his legs and ran down stairs. She pursued him, caught him, and on his attempting to knock her down, gave him a severe whipping, "punishing" him about the face severely. She then made him sit down for half an hour, till her husband returned.

CLEAR THE TRACK!—The manager of Niblo's Garden, in New York city, publishes the following notice:

> "The manager having specially granted to the Japanese embassy the right to promenade throughout the establishment at all hours of the day and evening, visitors are requested not to crowd upon them or obstruct them in the enjoyment of these privileges."

The republicans of the first district in Iowa have nominated Hon. Samuel R. Curtis, their present efficient representative, for re-election to congress.

HEAVY BETTING.—Senator Bayard, of Delaware, offered at Richmond to bet five thousand dollars that Douglas would not get the nomination at Baltimore, five thousand dollars that if he did get it he would not obtain the electoral vote of any state in the Union, and ten thousand dollars that he will not be president on the 4th of March, 1861.

At Baltimore, on Thursday, Mr. Hunter, of Louisiana, said the delegates from that state were ready to bet one million of dollars that Douglas would not obtain a single southern electoral vote.

☞ The first conflict between the Douglas and Breckenridge factions occurred at St. Louis, where the latter were prevented from ratifying their nominations. We shall hear of more squabbles in the south between the harmonious democracy. While the fights are going on the republicans are uneasy for something to do. We are really afraid that our victory will be won without an effort.

ENGLISH INTELLIGENCE OF AMERICAN POLITICS.—The Manchester (England) Times has the following remarkable statement of recent events in American politics:

The Baltimore Union convention had nominated Bell and Everett as candidates for the Presidency. The republicans of Chicago had nominated Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency. The Illinois convention had nominated Mr. Hamlin as President, and Mr. Maine as Vice President. Great enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Seward had determined on closing his senatorial career.

Thaddeus Hyatt has instituted a suit against the sergeant-at-arms of the senate for false imprisonment.

The New Jersey court of pardons has refused to commute the sentence of Rev. J. S. Harden, the clergyman convicted of poisoning his wife. An application will now be made to the governor for a reprieve, and if that is not granted, he will be executed on the 28th inst. It is said that he has made a full confession.

A girl of 14 years recently got married at Columbus, Ohio, and poisoned herself a few days afterwards. The young girl seems to have been in an undue hurry to enjoy novel experiences.

A PUGILISTIC TYPO.—On Saturday evening, a form-carrier in the Herald office, named John Bryne, got unduly elated at the nomination of Douglas and commenced a cleaning out operation. His amusements were interfered with by those in the office, who unceremoniously deposited his form into the middle of the street. Bryne, becoming enraged, went home threatening vengeance. To this end he procured a shot gun, and full of fire and slaughter, loaded it brimful. Before returning, he bethought himself of trying the gun. He did so with the most disastrous effects to himself. The overcharge caused the gun to burst and in the operation shattered his right arm and hand in a fearful manner. Rather an expensive luxury, John.—Chicago Journal.

The Prospect for Douglas.

Our Douglas fellow citizens do not like the nomination of Breckenridge. To use a late favorite phrase in fashion among them, "it is a wet blanket" upon the hopes of that branch of the party. "Breckenridge will decline," say they. "He and Douglas are good friends," etc. The telegraph, however, reports the response of Mr. Breckenridge to a party who were serenading him, and he talks like a man who has already accepted, and means to stand his ground. It is quite evident that the hopes cherished that everybody would get out of the way and let the "little giant" have a clear field to himself, are vain. There are five candidates before the public, if we are to count Gen. Houston as one. None of them weaken Mr. Lincoln, while they will all draw votes from Douglas, and each other. In the south the fight will be between Breckenridge and Bell, while Douglas will be nowhere. That Mr. Douglas has warm friends in the southern states cannot be doubted, but they are not numerous enough to give him an electoral vote. The declination of Fitzpatrick shows that the chances are considered quite uncertain. The north is not wholly to be relied upon. The defections in New England already begin to appear. It is true that the telegraph reports that the masses are for Douglas, but they are the masses of the cities, and it is well known of what material they are composed. The country democrats are made up of different material, and when it shall appear that the strength of the democratic party—the states which will win for that party—are all going for Breckenridge and Lane, there will be many "sober second thoughts." Mark our prediction that the enthusiasm for Douglas will grow smaller by degrees, from this time out. There are no hopes of triumph clinging about his nomination—certain defeat only stares his followers in the face, whichever way they turn. The democratic party is in the situation of the three men fighting upon the railroad, who were so excited that they heeded not the approach of the engine until it had passed over and crushed them. Their own quarrels have occupied the democracy so intensely that they did not take notice of the engine of an overwhelming public opinion bearing down upon them, until their family fight was over. Now they see the dangers of their situation, but "it is too late."

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The U. S. District Court, at its late session in Chicago, decided that executions issued in favor of non-residents, against a citizen of Illinois, could be levied on the homestead of the defendant, in spite of the state law to the contrary. The decision is that United States courts are not obliged to take cognizance in all cases of state laws, and that the law of the state in which the plaintiff resides is to be taken into consideration in rendering judgment.

Thus the supreme court is advancing step by step, usurping the powers of the states. Our courts will soon be mere appendages to it, and will after a while be unnecessary and useless in cases of any magnitude.

☞ Caleb Cushing, after leaving the Douglas convention, went directly to the seceders' convention and presided, as if nothing had happened. His opening speech was a cool specimen of eloquence. He was introduced to the convention in this style, by Mr. Russell of Va.:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—Your president needs no introduction from me, for you have already acknowledged him as one who is now, as he has been heretofore, president of the national democratic convention. [Tremenduous cheering.]

Mr. Cushing, on taking the chair, said: Gents:—We are re-assembled here as delegates to the national democratic convention, duly accredited from more than twenty states, for the purpose of enunciating the principles of the party, and for the purpose of continuing and re-establishing the principles of the party, of upholding the constitution and the Union, and the co-equal rights of the several states. [Loud cheering.]

The chair then announced that the convention would proceed to business.

☞ A terrible explosion occurred on the steamer Ben. W. Lewis near Cairo, on Sunday night, and upwards of fifty lives were lost. The boat took fire and burnt to the water's edge.

Gray, of the Cleveland Plaindealer, shortens the term "administrative officials" into "administration offals."

A SUGGESTION.—The coming fall a member of congress is to be elected from this district, and as a suggestion can do no harm, we propose to make one. We want, of course, one of our best men, one whose record will bear close scrutiny. We suggest the name of Mr. Alex. Graham of Janesville as such a man for the candidate. This is rather premature, perhaps, and we are not aware that Mr. Graham is a candidate, or that he would accept the nomination if tendered to him, but we can see in him a man fit for the post. Candidates should be sought by the people, and selected because of their fitness. The people may have claims upon a man, but he none upon them. Next week we will give our reasons more fully why we think Mr. Graham the fit man. What do the Janesville Gazette, Albany Times, Monroe Sentinel, and State Rights think of our suggestion? —Brodhead Reporter.

Mr. Graham is a thorough, working republican, and a man of talent. His nomination would be supported by us with cordiality and zeal, but we understand that he is not a candidate for the office named by the Reporter. If he would suffer his name to be used in this connection, he has hosts of friends in this and other counties who would be pleased to see him nominated; but we apprehend that the suggestion of the Reporter is not approved by Mr. G., and that it will be useless to urge him to accept a nomination. The Reporter will also allow us to suggest, that it is hardly the proper work of the newspapers of the district to control this nomination. Our advice would be to let the people decide this matter through their delegates, without any outside aid; but when the nomination is made, it is then the proper duty of the republican press to see that the nominee is elected. Acting upon this policy, we will here state that our own preference among the candidates is the nominee of the republican convention, whoever he may be. Until the convention is held we shall consider our duty performed by announcing the names of the candidates with such general commendation as we may think appropriate.

A GOOD LAW—POSTMASTERS TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. Colfax of Indiana, who is himself the publisher of a newspaper, introduced a bill at the present session, which has passed both houses of congress and become a law, requiring postmasters to deliver undirected newspapers sent in packages to clubs when the names of the members of such clubs are furnished him.

Let each postmaster, where club packages are taken, be furnished with a plainly written list of the subscribers, and he will be obliged to deliver the papers, however unpalateable the doctrines promulgated may be to him.

This law will be of great advantage to newspaper publishers, and their thanks are due to Mr. Colfax.—Madison Journal.

We do not agree with the Journal in its estimate either of the propriety or value of this law. Its effect will be solely to benefit the large eastern weeklies which flood the country to the detriment of the local press, and impose a large amount of labor on postmasters that ought not to be required of them. We see no good reason why those publishers at the east who are making thousands from their business where country papers are making hundreds or barely earning a subsistence, should not incur the expense and labor of directing their papers as well as a shipper take the trouble to mark his packages. Mr. Colfax, we think, had in view the interest of half a dozen mammoth establishments on the seaboard quite as much as the numerous class of small publishers who are scattered throughout the Union; and if he receives the thanks of this latter class, they possess a spirit of meekness under injuries very few of them have credit for.

We presume we have as large a list of subscribers at local post offices as the average of newspaper publishers, and could save as much labor under this new law, if we chose to avail ourselves of its provisions, as the majority of publishers; but we are unwilling, as a matter of self-interest, to entrust postmasters with the delivery of our paper without the name of the subscriber written upon it.

Postmasters can have no other interest than the easiest and quickest manner of distribution, and we are too easily accessible to complaints of non-reception of papers to multiply the chances by sending a package to the care of a man or a boy who can easily say the package was short of a full number when he wants an excuse for his own carelessness or lack of disposition to do our work for us. Where it costs a postage stamp to make such a complaint, and the letter conveying it can be cast into the stove without again thinking of it, or meeting face to face an irritated subscriber, a publisher may be willing to take the chances of a regular and correct distribution under the new law, but we are altogether too near our readers to try the experiment.

THE FARM MORTGAGE QUESTION IN POLITICS.—A correspondent of the Milwaukee Sentinel, writing from Waukesha county, says that the majority given for Judge Dixon in that county occasioned some surprise as the republicans expected to carry the election for Sloan by 300 to 400 majority. But since the decision of the farm mortgage cases, it has become known there that the votes of those interested in defeating the mortgages, were cast for Dixon, under assurances received from certain sources that by electing Dixon they would secure one Judge on the bench who was favorable to them. Had the fraud been discovered in time, says the correspondent, it might have been corrected and thus have saved this reliable republican county the humiliation to which she was brought by having been deceived into casting her vote against the choice of the republican convention. Waukesha county was not the only locality where such assurances were made.

☞ The sincerity of the popular sovereignty democrats may be known from the fact that they nominated Fitzpatrick, a member of the senate who voted for the Lecompton bill and Jeff. Davis' resolutions.

☞ One of the delegates to the democratic national convention from Tennessee, after he had taken his seat in the seceders' convention, thanked God that he was at length on a floor where he could speak without being hissed at.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

Gov. Fitzpatrick has declined the Vice-Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket, and Gov. H. B. Johnson has been substituted by the national committee. Mr. Johnson accepts and endorses the platform.

The committee to inform the candidates of their nomination, waited on Gov. Herschell B. Johnson, to-night, at the National Hotel. He received them in the large dining room of the hotel, which was crowded with ladies and gentlemen. He accepted the nomination, endorsing the platform in every particular, and declaring that the south would sustain the principles laid down in it. In his opinion the doctrine of non-intervention was a necessity to the preservation of the Union. [Applause.] And he should quietly, firmly and he hoped bravely accept the responsibility imposed upon him. He cherished the hope that Providence will lead us out of our civil disasters, and in His good time conduct us to tranquility and peace. [Long continued cheers.

Senator Davis followed in an eloquent strain, in relation to the personal and public character of Breckenridge and Lane.—The democracy was not the party which seeks for spoils or rests itself upon the claims of men. When Mr. Van Buren proved untrue, they cast him off as a diseased member, and when at a more recent period, another democrat proved recreant, it remained for the party, faithful to its institutions, to separate him also from the body. He vindicated the convention that nominated Breckenridge and Lane; let spoilsmen go where inclinations leads them. The democracy honor Mr. Buchanan for all he has done, and cast the complaints of office-seekers to the winds. [Laughter.] He spoke of the constitution and states rights, justice and fraternity as the principles under which Breckenridge and Lane will be elected. [Applause.]

Messrs. Toombs and Hallett followed, the latter insisting as the framer of the Cincinnati platform, that there is nothing therein in the least countenancing squatter sovereignty. The Wilmot Proviso having been removed from congress, it was adopted with a view to keep slavery out of the territories, and to gain abolition votes under a spurious democracy.

Mr. Homan of Ky. made some humorous remarks.

The procession proceeded to Brown's Hotel, where an immense crowd had previously gathered. After the performance of an air, Gen. Lane appeared and tendered his thanks to the assemblage for their manifestations of kindness. He was proud of the nominee of the Baltimore convention. He was a man whom he had long known on the battle field and in the councils of the nation, and he felt deeply honored at being placed on the same ticket with him. He (Lane) accepted the nomination of the national democracy assembled at Baltimore, and with them believed in the equality and rights of the states under the constitution. None exceeded himself in loyalty and devotion to his country, and for the perpetuation of the Union he was ready to lay down his life.

Gen. Lane was loudly applauded throughout his speech.

Mr. Yancey followed, saying that the country was in a crisis, from which it was the duty of the democracy to relieve her.—He spoke at considerable length, and was frequently applauded.

The demonstration continued beyond midnight.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

Altogether contrary to previous indications, the post office deficiency bill has become a law. It was saved from defeat by the house unexpectedly receding from the amendments, until now, so decidedly persevered in, providing for the restoration, with a few exceptions, of all the inland service suspended on the 4th of March, 1859, apart from the appropriation for deficiencies. It requires the post master general to advertise for proposals and contracts with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, for the transportation of the mails by steamships from Charleston via Savannah, to Key West and back, twice a month or oftener, from the 1st of July next, to the 1st of June, 1864 inclusive, at such sums as he may think reasonable, not exceeding $50,000 per annum. The cabinet were at the capitol during the morning, transacting business in connection with public measures.—Among the last bills approved by the President is one reducing rates for public printing, 40 per cent on the present prices; to take effect from the date of its passage. The special committee to report next session, on the President's further protest, communicated to-day against the Covode committee, consists of Messrs. Stanton, Cary, Adams of Massachusetts, Sedgwick, and Pryor.

BALTIMORE, June 25.

It is positively asserted here to-night by politicians from Washington, that Mr. Fitzpatrick positively declines the nomination that has been tendered him.

CONCORD, N. H., June 25.

Ex-President Pierce pronounces the nomination of Douglas a sectional one.

The secession of the Boston Post creates quite a stir among the old political stagers here. Some democrats are in a quandary about the Baltimore nominations, but the rank and file are enthusiastic for Douglas. The Patriot, and all the party papers in the state, except the Berke democrats, will support Douglas.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

Gov. Fitzpatrick having declined the nomination for vice president, the national committee have substituted HERSCHEL B. JOHNSON, of Georgia.

A large crowd, accompanied by a band, proceeded to-night to the residence of Mr. Breckenridge, and having serenaded him, he, in response to repeated cries, appeared. He said he felt deeply this manifestation of friendly regard, and accepted it as an approval of the proceedings at Baltimore, by which the national democracy had placed his name and that of his gallant and honored friend, Gen. Lane, before the people for president and vice president of the United States.

ST. LOUIS, June 26.

The demonstration of Breckenridge and Lane faction, last evening, was interrupted at the Planters' House by a large number of Douglas men. Judge Bowlin attempted but was not permitted to speak, and finally disappeared. A collision was at one time very much feared.

Another Douglas jubilee comes off to morrow night.

NEW YORK, June 26.

The five story building, No. 119 Fulton street and 42 Ann street, were almost entirely destroyed by fire this morning. It was occupied by Lewis & Co., clothiers, and Whitleborn & Co., printers. A policeman was badly injured and several firemen narrowly escaped being crushed by the falling of the walls. Loss $25,000.

Sketches of the Baltimore Nominees.

John C. Breckenridge, who has been nominated by the seceders democratic national convention, for President of the United States, is a native and citizen of Kentucky—compartively young man, being scarcely forty years of age; was elected Vice President on the ticket with President Buchanan, in 1856—in anticipation of his term expiring next 4th of March, his party friends in Kentucky have elected him to the United States senate in place of Hon. J. J. Crittenden. He is represented as being a very dignified and manly southern gentleman.

Joseph Lane, of Oregon, who is the nominee for Vice President with Breckenridge, is also a United States senator. He is a native of North Carolina, was a merchant in Indiana, was a member of the legislature of that state several times, served in the Mexican war, and was appointed Brigadier-General by President Polk. In 1849 he was appointed governor of Oregon territory, and was elected delegate to congress in 1851, which office he held until the state was organized, when he was chosen one of its senators. His term expires March 4th, 1861.

Stephen A. Douglas, the nominee for President by his own wing of the Baltimore convention, is a United States senator from Illinois. He was born in Vermont, emigrated to Ohio in 1831 and thence to Illinois, is a lawyer, and successively held the offices of attorney general of the state, register of the land office, secretary of state, and judge of the supreme court, was a member of the house of representatives from 1843 to '47, was elected to the senate by the legislature in 1847, to succeed James Semple, and was re-elected at the expiration of his term in 1853, and again re-elected in 1858. He is in favor of the extension of national territory, and is the leading advocate of "popular sovereignty." He was the author of the Kansas-Nebraska bill.

Benjamin Fitzpatrick, who is the nominee on the Douglas ticket for Vice President, is also a member of the United States senate. He is a native of Georgia, emigrated to Alabama in 1815, and has ever since resided there, is a lawyer by profession, was solicitor of his judicial district from 1823 to '29, was a presidential elector in 1840, was governor of Alabama in 1842 and '43, and again in 1844 and '45. He was appointed to the senate by the governor in 1848, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dixon H. Lewis; retired at the close of his term in 1849; was elected in 1853, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William R. King, and at the close of his term in 1855 was re-elected for another term, which expires March 4th, 1861. He was chosen president pro tem. of the senate in 1857, and still holds that position. —Chicago Journal.

HORRIBLE.—The New York Herald of the 21st gives the following account of the death of three men by being run over by the express train on the Hudson River railroad, one of whom was forcibly held on the track till the cow-catcher knocked his brains out:

As the express train on yesterday, which leaves Chambers street at 11 A. M., on the Hudson Railroad, was within a quarter of a mile of the Peekskill depot, it ran over and killed three men, two of whom were fighting on the track. Three men, nam[illegible]eo. Rawcliffe, Henry W. Hall, and Thomas Granger, were walking on the track near Peekskill, at one o'clock in the afternoon, when Hall and Granger got into a quarrel, clinched and fell upon the track. This occurred just as the train appeared in sight, but it was impossible for the engineer to observe them at that distance. As the train approached he gave the usual signal of danger, and continued to blow the whistle up to the time of the accident. The warning was, however, unnoticed by the two men fighting, but the other, Rawcliffe, went up to them as soon as he observed the train, and attempted to separate them, when Hall seized him by the arm and held him on the track. The engineer, now seeing that it was almost impossible to prevent running over them, reversed the engine and applied the patent brake, but too late, for before the train could be stopped, it had passed over them, killing two and fatally injuring the third. Rawcliffe, the one who attempted to separate the others, was struck upon the head by the cow-catcher, and thrown over on the other track. He struggled hard to free himself, but Hall held him so that the head of the unfortunate young man projected over on the track upon which the train was. He was instantly killed.—Thomas Granger was underneath Hall, and was mangled in a horrible manner. He was also instantly killed. The other, Henry W. Hall, was struck upon the head by the cow-catcher, and thrown to the side of the track. He lived nearly half an hour, but was speechless and insensible. On examination it was found that his skull and side were broken. The accident was seen by several persons.

The folly of girls in advertising for husbands, as in answering the advertisements for wives, was the fatal snare into which has fallen, among hundreds of others, the daughter of a prominent New York merchant, living on twenty-fourth street. She "advertised" in the Herald, in company with several other school girls, with whom she enjoyed good hearty laughs over the letters they got. After several days, she took out a letter, on opening which she read at the bottom, "I am following you now," and sure enough the writer was but a few steps behind. She thus fell directly into his power, and was persuaded to elope to Cincinnati, where his parents, wealthy people, resided, and where they would be married. Arrived in Cincinnati, they learned that his "parents" had taken sudden flight to Texas in consequence of the death of a "wealthy relative" there. Pushing on to New Orleans, the poor girl discovered the terrible imposition, and was left destitute.—She was crossing the levee for a fatal leap into the river, on a recent evening, when friendly hands interposed and saved her.

PLUCK.—Mrs. Jane Manahan, residing in East Cambridge, Mass., while awaiting her husband's return one evening, fell into a doze, from which she was aroused to find that a burglar was making free with such articles as he could conveniently dispose of. Without screaming or manifesting the least alarm, she sprang for him, but he took to his legs and ran down stairs. She pursued him, caught him, and on his attempting to knock her down, gave him a severe whipping, "punishing" him about the face severely. She then made him sit down for half an hour, till her husband returned.

CLEAR THE TRACK!—The manager of Niblo's Garden, in New York city, publishes the following notice:

"The manager having specially granted to the Japanese embassy the right to promenade throughout the establishment at all hours of the day and evening, visitors are requested not to crowd upon them or obstruct them in the enjoyment of these privileges."

The republicans of the first district in Iowa have nominated Hon. Samuel R. Curtis, their present efficient representative, for re-election to congress.

HEAVY BETTING.—Senator Bayard, of Delaware, offered at Richmond to bet five thousand dollars that Douglas would not get the nomination at Baltimore, five thousand dollars that if he did get it he would not obtain the electoral vote of any state in the Union, and ten thousand dollars that he will not be president on the 4th of March, 1861.

At Baltimore, on Thursday, Mr. Hunter, of Louisiana, said the delegates from that state were ready to bet one million of dollars that Douglas would not obtain a single southern electoral vote.

☞ The first conflict between the Douglas and Breckenridge factions occurred at St. Louis, where the latter were prevented from ratifying their nominations. We shall hear of more squabbles in the south between the harmonious democracy. While the fights are going on the republicans are uneasy for something to do. We are really afraid that our victory will be won without an effort.

ENGLISH INTELLIGENCE OF AMERICAN POLITICS. — The Manchester (England) Times has the following remarkable statement of recent events in American politics:

The Baltimore Union convention had nominated Bell and Everett as candidates for the Presidency. The republicans of Chicago had nominated Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency. The Illinois convention had nominated Mr. Hamlin as President, and Mr. Maine as Vice President. Great enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Seward had determined on closing his senatorial career.

Thaddeus Hyatt has instituted a suit against the sergeant-at-arms of the senate for false imprisonment.

The New Jersey court of pardons has refused to commute the sentence of Rev. J. S. Harden, the clergyman convicted of poisoning his wife. An application will now be made to the governor for a reprieve, and if that is not granted, he will be executed on the 28th inst. It is said that he has made a full confession.

A girl of 14 years recently got married at Columbus, Ohio, and poisoned herself a few days afterwards. The young girl seems to have been in an undue hurry to enjoy novel experiences.

A PUGILISTIC TYPO.—On Saturday evening, a form-carrier in the Herald office, named John Bryne, got unduly elated at the nomination of Douglas and commenced a cleaning out operation. His amusements were interfered with by those in the office, who unceremoniously deposited his form into the middle of the street. Bryne, becoming enraged, went home threatening vengeance. To this end he procured a shot gun, and full of fire and slaughter, loaded it brimful. Before returning, he bethought himself of trying the gun. He did so with the most disastrous effects to himself. The overcharge caused the gun to burst and in the operation shattered his right arm and hand in a fearful manner. Rather an expensive luxury, John.—Chicago Journal.

At the Douglas ratification meeting last night thirty-four guns were fired, bonfires, music, speeches, &c.

Firemen's Programme for the Celebration of the Fourth.

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of this city has furnished us the following programme of the firemen's celebration of the Fourth of July:

At sunrise on the morning of the Fourth, at the ringing of the bells, Engine Company No. 1 will take suction through 100 feet of hose, on the west end of the lower bridge: Engine Company No. 2 will take the same number of feet, on the east end of the bridge. Hook and Ladder Co. will stack ladders in the center of the bridge, cannon under the ladders. Sacks will protect the ladders and gun from the approach of the multitude.

Declaration of independence will be read from the top of the ladders by C. Seth Cushman, Esq.

Four guns will then be fired, corresponding with the number of fire companies in the city.

The two engine companies will then carry their hose to the top of the ladders and play for three minutes, after which the national salute will be fired, when the companies will be dismissed.

The members of the several companies will appear in citizen's dress.

By order of the Chief Engineer.

N. B. No postponement on account of the sun not rising.

For the Daily Gazette.

The Country in Danger!

Republicans arouse! The Douglas with his freebooters is in the field! The slave trade is to be re-opened! The homestead bill is defeated! Freedom of speech to be stricken down! Fraud, corruption, peculation, is to be continued! The forty thieves to be reinstated into office unless republicans come to the rescue!

Therefore, let there be such a turn out by the republicans, old and young, men and women, TO-NIGHT, as shall scare the traitors and send them howling to their dens and hiding places. Wisconsin must be free!

A WIDE AWAKE.

COMMON COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the council was held last evening. The only important business transacted was to instruct the city attorney to defend a suit against the city in the United States district court by Chase & Son of Buffalo for furniture procured by A. M. Pratt for the high school building.

A GOOD THING.—We are pleased to learn that Wm. M. Tallman, Esq., is about to erect a handsome brick edifice on the corner of Milwaukee and River streets, instead of the wooden building at first proposed. This is a much better arrangement, and will start a block on that corner which will be an ornament to the city.

EARLY POTATOES.—M. S. Gould, of Emerald Grove has left at our office some very large new potatoes. His first supply was on the 19th inst.

MORE STRAWBERRIES.—Among other friends who have shown their good will towards us is Mr. S. P. Hoskins, who placed on our table a liberal contribution of unusually fine strawberries.

FIRST PAGE.—The reader will find a column of reading matter again on the first page. This arrangement will hereafter be permanent.

FRUITS.—We are under obligations to Mr. J. P. Hoskins for specimens of strawberries, very fine, of the Willey and Hovey varieties. Mr. Sanford Williams also brings us, from the nursery of Mr. Salsbury of Lima, a very large variety of the red currant, and the limb of a gooseberry bush covered with fruit. They show what can be done in this country with small fruits.

EDGERTON REPUBLICAN CLUB.—Messrs. Gibbs, Graham, and others of this city, will address the Republican Club, on Tuesday evening next, at Swift's Hall, in Edgerton. A general invitation is extended.

THE EXCURSION TO CRYSTAL LAKE.—The preparations for the excursion to Crystal Lake have all been completed. The railroad accommodations will be ample for any number that may choose to attend.—Parties who desire to go will remember that the train will start precisely at eight on Thursday morning, and that the price is $1,50 for a lady and gentleman, fifty cents for a lady, and fifty cents for children, the round trip.

"Little boy, why did people throw stones at Stephen, of whom we read in the Scriptures?"

"Cos, sir, I suppose they wanted to hit him."

Prosperity is no just scale; adversity is the only true balance to weigh friends.

WAY UP TO "SINE DIE."—In New York state, one of the political parties had for twenty years been in the habit of holding their nominating conventions at the house of Mr. G——.

He happened on a recent occasion, for the first time, to be in when they had finished their business, and heard a little delegate move that "this convention adjourn sine die."

"Sine die!" said Mr. G—— to a person standing near, "where's that?"

"Why, that's away in the northern part of the county," said his neighbor.

"Hold on, if you please, Mr. Chairman," said the landlord, with great earnestness and emphasis, "hold on; I'd like to be heard on that question. I have kept a public house now for more than twenty years. I am a poor man. I have always belonged to the party and never split in my life.—This is the most central location in the county, and it's where we've always met. I've never had nor asked for an office, and worked day and night for the party, and now I think, sir, it is contemptible to go to adjourn this convention way up to Sine Die!"

OPERATION FOR CROUP.—Dr. Van Buren, of New York, was recently called to a case of membraneous croup, in the person of a little boy three years old. The child began to sink rapidly. Placing the little fellow under the influence of chloroform, he made an incision in the throat and introduced a silver tube about three and a half inches in diameter, into the windpipe, below the obstruction. This being accomplished, the child began to breathe freely through the tube, and soon revived and became quite comfortable. The membraneous matter began to give way above the tube, and dropping down was coughed up through the tube. This was continued several days, when the tube was removed, the incision commenced healing rapidly up, and now, two weeks after the operation, the little fellow is almost as well and chatty as if nothing had happened to him.

THE REFORM SCHOOL.—The board of managers of our state reform school, at their meeting in this place, last week, appointed Dr. Barrett, of Milwaukee, superintendent. Of the selection, the Milwaukee papers say: Dr. Barrett possesses the ability, the sagacity, the prudence of making a faithful officer. He is a thoroughly educated physician, and will bring much scientific knowledge to his aid in the duties of his office.

The board fixed the salary of the superintendent at $800, per annum. The executive committee of the institution will meet here on the 25th, when it is expected the school will be opened.—Waukesha Democrat.

"Mary, what animal dropped from the clouds?" asked Charles.

"The rain, dear!" was the whispered reply.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

Rally of the Republican Club.

The members of the Janesville City Republican Club, and all republicans of the city, are requested to meet at the Court Room, TUESDAY EVENING, June 26th. There is business of importance to be transacted and every republican should attend.

The Wide Awakes will meet for drill and also march through the streets.

The public are respectfully invited to attend and witness the progress of the pupils.

A concert and exhibition will also be given at Lappin's Hall on Wednesday evening the 27th inst., commencing at half-past 7.

Firemen's Programme for the Celebration of the Fourth.

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of this city has furnished us the following programme of the firemen's celebration of the Fourth of July:

At sunrise on the morning of the Fourth, at the ringing of the bells, Engine Company No. 1 will take suction through 100 feet of hose, on the west end of the lower bridge; Engine Company No. 2 will take the same number of feet, on the east end of the bridge. Hook and Ladder Co. will stack ladders in the center of the bridge, cannon under the ladders. Sacks will protect the ladders and gun from the approach of the multitude.

Declaration of independence will be read from the top of the ladders by C. Seth Cushman, Esq.

Four guns will then be fired, corresponding with the number of fire companies in the city.

The two engine companies will then carry their hose to the top of the ladders and play for three minutes, after which the national salute will be fired, when the companies will be dismissed.

The members of the several companies will appear in citizen's dress.

By order of the Chief Engineer.

N. B. No postponement on account of the sun not rising.

For the Daily Gazette.

The Country in Danger!

Republicans, arouse! The Douglas with his freebooters is in the field! The slave trade is to be re-opened! The homestead bill is defeated! Freedom of speech to be stricken down! Fraud, corruption, peculation, to be continued! The forty thieves to be re-instated into office unless republicans come to the rescue!

Therefore, let there be such a turn out by the republicans, old and young, men and women, TO-NIGHT, as shall scare the traitors and send them howling to their dens and hiding places. Wisconsin must be free! A WIDE AWAKE.

COMMON COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the council was held last evening. The only important business transacted was to instruct the city attorney to defend a suit against the city in the United States district court by Chase & Son of Buffalo for furniture procured by A. M. Pratt for the high school building.

A GOOD THING.—We are pleased to learn that Wm. M. Tallman, Esq., is about to erect a handsome brick edifice on the corner of Milwaukee and River streets, instead of the wooden building at first proposed. This is a much better arrangement, and will start a block on that corner which will be an ornament to the city.

EARLY POTATOES.—M. S. Gould, of Emerald Grove has left at our office some very large new potatoes. His first supply was on the 19th inst.

MORE STRAWBERRIES.—Among other friends who have shown their good will towards us is Mr. S. P. Hoskins, who placed on our table a liberal contribution of unusually fine strawberries.

FIRST PAGE.—The reader will find a column of reading matter again on the first page. This arrangement will hereafter be permanent.

FRUITS.—We are under obligations to Mr. J. P. Hoskins for specimens of strawberries, very fine, of the Willey and Hovey varieties. Mr. Sanford Williams also brings us, from the nursery of Mr. Salsbury of Lima, a very large variety of the red currant, and the limb of a gooseberry bush covered with fruit. They show what can be done in this country with small fruits.

EDGERTON REPUBLICAN CLUB.—Messrs. Gibbs, Graham, and others of this city, will address the Republican Club, on Tuesday evening next, at Swift's Hall, in Edgerton. A general invitation is extended.

THE EXCURSION TO CRYSTAL LAKE.—The preparations for the excursion to Crystal Lake have all been completed. The railroad accommodations will be ample for any number that may choose to attend.—Parties who desire to go will remember that the train will start precisely at eight on Thursday morning, and that the price is $1,50 for a lady and gentleman, fifty cents for a lady, and fifty cents for children, the round trip.

"Little boy, why did people throw stones at Stephen, of whom we read in the Scriptures?"

"Cos, sir, I suppose they wanted to hit him."

Prosperity is no just scale; adversity is the only true balance to weigh friends.

WAY UP TO "SINE DIE."—In New York state, one of the political parties had for twenty years been in the habit of holding their nominating conventions at the house of Mr. G——.

He happened on a recent occasion, for the first time, to be in when they had finished their business, and heard a little delegate move that "this convention adjourn sine die."

"Sine die!" said Mr. G—— to a person standing near, "where's that?"

"Why, that's away in the northern part of the county," said his neighbor.

"Hold on, if you please, Mr. Chairman," said the landlord, with great earnestness and emphasis, "hold on; I'd like to be heard on that question. I have kept a public house now for more than twenty years. I am a poor man. I have always belonged to the party and never split in my life.—This is the most central location in the county, and it's where we've always met. I've never had nor asked for an office, and worked day and night for the party, and now I think, sir, it is contemptible to go to adjourn this convention way up to 'Sine Die!'"

OPERATION FOR CROUP.—Dr. Van Buren, of New York, was recently called to a case of membraneous croup, in the person of a little boy three years old. The child began to sink rapidly. Placing the little fellow under the influence of chloroform, he made an incision in the throat and introduced a silver tube about three and a half inches in diameter, into the windpipe, below the obstruction. This being accomplished, the child began to breathe freely through the tube, and soon revived and became quite comfortable. The membraneous matter began to give way above the tube, and dropping down was coughed up through the tube. This was continued several days, when the tube was removed, the incision commenced healing rapidly up, and now, two weeks after the operation, the little fellow is almost as well and chatty as if nothing had happened to him.

THE REFORM SCHOOL.—The board of managers of our state reform school, at their meeting in this place, last week, appointed Dr. Barrett, of Milwaukee, superintendent. Of the selection, the Milwaukee papers say: Dr. Barrett possesses the ability, the sagacity, the prudence of making a faithful officer. He is a thoroughly educated physician, and will bring much scientific knowledge to his aid in the duties of his office.

The board fixed the salary of the superintendent at $800, per annum. The executive committee of the institution will meet here on the 25th, when it is expected the school will be opened.—Waukesha Democrat.

"Mary, what animal dropped from the clouds?" asked Charles.

"The rain, dear!" was the whispered reply.

A writer on ornithology inquires what kind of eagles fly highest.

We don't know; but unquestionably golden eagles generally fly fastest.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.
